

Ms Dosie Mae Suell

June 18, 1942 - January 28, 2026

Life Reflections

Dosie Mae Suell was born on June 7, 1942 in Starkville, MS to the late Virge and Mary Ellen Townsel Suell.

Dosie was employed as a Head Cook with Sigma Chi Fraternity of Mississippi State University for over 40 years, where she ultimately retired. She formed lifelong relationships with many of the young men of Sigma Chi. Many of them became family to her, reaching the status of “sons”. She loved and cared for each of them as she did for her own.

Dosie was preceded in death by her parents, Virge and Mary Ellen Townsel Suell, her son, Aaron Edwards, and her siblings: James Suell, Chattie Beatrice Deloach, Elder Robert Suell, Richard Suell, Henry Amos Suell, Annie Myrtle Evans, William Suell, and Artie Mae Sinkfield.

She leaves to cherish her memories, her daughter, Anita Suell of Starkville; 3 grandchildren, Brianna “Bree” Johnson of Starkville, MS, Brand Suell of Starkville, MS, and Sgt. Dorian Suell (Yanitza Suell) of Killeen, TX; 4 great-grandchildren, Kason Brown, Nyla Suell, Aniyah Suell, and Aliyah Suell; two brothers, Rev. Timothy Bush and Darryl Bush, both of Starkville, MS; and a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
