“ My momma was an amazing person — even the ones who didn’t deserve her. The parents who didn’t want their kids, didn’t raise them, didn’t protect them — she stepped in every time. She showed up. She gave and gave with no regrets.

She poured her heart into us. She loved us in ways we didn’t always understand. That kind of love? That’s rare. That’s real.

Mama you were truly a gift and showed me everyday how lucky I was to have you. I’m truly gonna miss you. Mostly I’m gonna miss our long talks, trips , advice, etc. You were my rock. I love you forever and in always.

“ Having known Flora since High School, her gentle nature and quiet spirit permeated her existence. She truly loved her family, and always had a kind word to share, whenever we talked. I am grateful that God allowed our paths to cross!

“ Flora was always very encouraging and friendly! As a young girl I admired her professionalism! She was more than a neighbor, she was family! Coming home will not be the same- but I will cherish the memory of my last conversation with her during my visit in February! Prayers for the family!
