

Mrs. Juliaphine T. Wilson

August 18, 1946 - September 5, 2025

Juliaphine Taylor Wilson was born August 18, 1946, in Starkville, MS. Juliaphine was the firstborn of eight children, born to the late Roosevelt Taylor Sr. and Magnolia Boyd Taylor. Juliaphine, referred to as “Phine” has left an impressive mark and legacy for her family, friends, and associates to be proud of. Her imprint of healing and mentoring the community of Starkville, West Point, Prentiss, the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson, and the Windy City of Chicago, where she attended the Michael Reese School of Nursing, earning a degree as a licensed practical nurse.

Julia was known as the “patient's nurse” and through her profession, many lives were touched, sustained, and transformed for the better. She was a proud and driven woman who provided for her family and friends no matter their circumstance; we could all go to “Phines” house when we needed a place to stay. She was a life member of Griffin United Methodist Church and the NAACP.

Juliaphine departed this earth on September 5, 2025.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Magnolia Taylor and Roosevelt Taylor Sr.; one brother, Roosevelt Taylor Jr.; and grandparents, John and Gertrude Taylor.

Juliaphine Taylor Wilson leaves to cherish her memory one son, Bruce L. (Twanda) Wilson of Slidell, LA. Those who will be profoundly deprived of her presence are her two grandsons: Chais (Simone) Wilson and Bruce (Hannah) Wilson Jr. of Slidell, LA.; Great-grandchildren: Dreyk Wilson, Giada Wilson, Blayk Wilson, Eva Wilson, and Ava Wilson; Nine siblings: Dorothy Vaughn, Alma Jean Taylor, Lawrence Taylor, Diane Taylor-Singleton, Deborah (Micheal) Shannon, Ronnie (Gina) Taylor, Vanessa Larry, and Andreas Taylor; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

“ When I was just starting school, I was not too big and not very brave, but God blessed me with a friend who was, like me, not too big, but who was, unlike me, very brave. That friend was Phine, and all through the years she remained a treasured friend. Not only was Phine a gifted student, but she could outrun everyone, including most of the boys. Because of her high level of energy, Mrs. Gibson, who was our third grade teacher, nicknamed Phine "Fire Truck". What an indomitable person she was, and what a blessing to all of the lives she touched. To her son, Colonel Wilson, her sisters, Diane, Debra, and Jean, her brothers, Ronnie, Larry, and Andre, it is not hyperbole for me to say that your sister was truly a gift from God. From a former neighbor and classmate. Dunny Prewitt.
