“ My Friend, My confidant, My adviser, My prayer partner, My sister. We have a long shared history of walks in the rain as teenagers discussing high school crushes, we talked about life/death; heartache/pain; love/hate; marriage/divorce; happiness/loneliness, no subject has been untouched between us, we have agreed and disagreed and never fell out with each other because we respected each other and our special friendship. I will always remember you, never to forget you. Fly High angel with your angel (Nate) until we meet again. Love you always. Mapel

Your smile was like sunshine and you had the spirit of an angel. It's not how long we live that's important; it's the impact we make on others that counts. You made a positive impact on so many lives and will truly be missed.

Our heartfelt sympathy extended to the entire family. Laura loved all that she encountered. I will miss her remarks about June always running away from her.. joe said "Goodbye my Friend, I Love You and will see you some glad morning- when this life is over" . Enjoy your heavenly reunion with your departed family and friends as you have made it to your new home. RIP- Laura Ann.
