

Margaret Washington

March 26, 1928 - September 26, 2023

Margaret Washington, born the third child to the proud parents of Annie L. and George Curry Sr. who preceded her in death. Margaret confessed faith, hope in Christ at an early age, and joined Zion Franklin United Methodist Church where her parents were active members. Later in life, Margaret served as a dedicated, devoted member of New Zion United Methodist Church in Starkville, Ms.

Margaret attended Turnpike school located in the southern portion of Oktibbeha County near Zion Franklin United Methodist Church. She later moved to Maywood, Illinois where she graduated high school from Proviso East High School. After completing high school, she moved to Grand Rapids, MI and united in holy matrimony to the late Louis D. Washington, Sr. She relocated back to Starkville, MS. in 1969, built her home and worked as a dedicated employee of Mississippi State University as a custodian until her retirement.

Margaret was a humble, loving and kind mother to ten children, all boys and three stepchildren whom she loved and cherished along with her twenty-three grandchildren and thirty-one great grandchildren. She dearly loved being in the presence of her sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She thoroughly enjoyed cooking and became well known in the community for her famous caramel cakes.

Margaret leaves to cherish her memories: her children Eric (Debra) Washington of Denver, CO, Curtis Washington of Starkville, MS and Melvin Washington of Louisville, MS; Stepchildren: Louis D. (Glenda) Washington Jr. of Atlanta GA and Jeannette Martin of Las Vegas, NV; her siblings: Catherine (Cleveland) Jackson, Zelda Anderson, Sammie Curry, Isaac (Barbara) Curry and one sister-in-law Henry Alice Curry. She leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Preceding Margaret in death are seven children: Henry D. Washington, Duane Washington, Clifford Dennis Vaughn, Willie E. Bardwell, Billy Bardwell, Gregory N. Washington, Keith B. Vaughn; Stepson: Benjamin Washington; three siblings: Hazel L. Washington, Charles Curry and George Curry Jr.
