

Mary Janice Bell-Clinicy

October 4, 1945 - June 10, 2020

Mary Janice Bell Clinicy was born on October 4, 1945 to N. F and Frankie D. Bell. At an early age, she accepted Christ and was baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Starkville, MS. After graduating from Henderson High School in 1963, Janice attended Jackson State University where she met and married Kenneth Clinicy. Mary Janice moved to Chicago, IL in 1979 where she worked as a home healthcare supervisor for 30 years. After retirement, Mary Janice moved back to Starkville. She joined Christian Faith M.B. Church and cared for her mother for over 14 years. On July 10, 2019, Mary Janice was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia. After fighting the disease for 10 months, Mary Janice succumbed to AML on June 10, 2020.

She leaves to cherish precious memories and celebrate her legacy: her sisters: Vanzelene Bell, Lena Mae Sidney, and Barbara Ann Hicks; her son: Kevin Bell; her daughter: Ricikippia Clinicy; and grandchildren: Kiyla, Blair and Nia.
