

Mr. McArthur Whitfield

July 1, 1948 - May 10, 2025

McArthur Whitfield was born in West Point, MS to Isom and Marena Whitfield on July 1, 1948.

McArthur was the firstborn. Mac spent his entire life in Columbus, MS. He attended Union Academy School and continued his higher education at Hunt High School.

Mac confessed Christ at an early age and joined Fourth Street M.B. Church. In later years, he was ordained as a deacon. Mac was a bible scholar and enjoyed discussion the bible and attending bible studies. He would visit various churches on Wednesday nights.

As a young man, Mac got into the workforce working at Lawson Drug Store, delivering medicines on a bicycle. Later, he was hired at Mitchell Engineering (CECO), where he worked for over 40 years until he retired. After retiring, Mac did not want to just sit around, so he became a licensed bail bondsman and worked as a security guard for a few years until his health failed.

In December 1994, Mac was united in holy matrimony to Jennie Carter.

McArthur was preceded in death by his two children: Reginald "Toby" Madison and Elisa "Lisa" Whitfield Gholson; his parents, Isom Whitfield and Marena Whitfield; his brother, Robert Whitfield; his sister-in-law, Beauty Whitfield; and his grandmother, Frances Virgil.

McArthur leaves to cherish his memories his wife Jennie Whitfield; his baby daughter, Jennifer Whitfield (Nwauzoma) Whitlow of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; his brother, James (Martha) Whitfield of Columbus MS; one aunt, Betty House of Starkville MS; six grandchildren: Jeremy (Raven) Gholson, Antwan Gholson, Jerimiah Gholson, Terrell Jackson, Jabria (Machi) Jackson, and Cameron Jackson; 6 stepchildren: Beatrice Carter, Gary (Dena) Carter, Calvin Carter, Patrick Carter and Ergin (Toya) Carter; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
