“ Met Butler about 10 years ago while I was visiting my older Brother Ned Whitfield on railroad street. We immediately bonded through conversations about the Military, Trucking and Life. When ever we met up he always catered to all that was there especially me, so I made sure to treat him the same and I always contributed to his events to lighten up his load. He was always giving and helping out the ones with less. He knew something about everything and you couldn't out talk him, just was entertaining to be around. I respect his hustle mentality, his friendship, his skill set as a business man but mostly his compassion for his family. I SALUTE you Soldier, Mission Accomplished, Job Well Done, Rest Well, First Sergeant Webber Out!
