

Shelia Vaughn Morgan

March 12, 1962 - October 20, 2020

Shelia Vaughn Morgan was born in Oktibbeha County, Mississippi to the late Elbert Vaughn and Winnie Ruth Morris.

Affectionately known as "Tee Shelia", she confessed hope in Christ at an early age and was baptized at Second Baptist Church where she remained a faithful member and served as a member of the Hospitality Committee until her health failed.

She was educated at F.O. Alexander High School.

She loves dancing, playing spades, word puzzles, traveling and watching movies.

She was "Mommy-Auntie" to her niece, Lindsey and leaves her legacy of courage and love for her nieces, nephews and all who knew her.

Shelia was formerly employed in food services at Mississippi State University and later employed at Hotel Chester.

She leaves to cherish her memories:
